Karen: This is Marjorie Burgess communication resigning from the COB. If I already sent this to you, I apologize for the duplication, but I could not remember if I forwarded it when I received it a couple of weeks ago.

Marjorie: I am certainly saddened to hear of this news. You have been such a wonderful asset to the board for as long as I have been involved, and I'm sure long before that. I would imagine that the remaining board members would like to have the opportunity to say their goodbyes, so from that standpoint, I would encourage you to attend the meeting on the 9th, but the decision is certainly yours.
I have a call into the clerks office to see your email will suffice as a written statement of resignation, or if they will ask for something in addition. I will let you know on that as soon as I find out.

In any event, it has been a pleasure working with you Marjorie. I can't tell you how much I have appreciated your assistance over the years, as well as the professional demeanor you have brought to the board.

Thanks again for your service,
Jack

Carolyn and Jack,

Regretfully, I must resign from the Citizen Odor Board as I have just recently moved to Ankeny. I have definitely enjoyed my time on the board and am especially grateful that it allowed me to share some time and an activity with my Mother before she passed away. I have enjoyed meeting the other members and feel a great deal of admiration for their time and service to the board.

I don't know if I should attend this last meeting...what do you both think about that?

Again, thanks for everything. I am sure we will run into each other again.
