Mr. Michael Tramontina, Director Iowa Department of Economic Development 200 East Grand Avenue Des Moines, IA 50309

SUBJECT: Application for CDBG Disaster Funds

Dear Mr. Tramontina:

The City of Des Moines is the proposed recipient of disaster funds for Housing Activities, including single and multi-family rehabilitation, homebuyer assistance, and interim mortgage assistance available from the Consolidated Security, Disaster Assistance, and Continuing Appropriations Act, 2009, (P.L. 110-329).

We propose to serve as the responsible entity in the distribution of these disaster recovery funds, and pledge our best efforts to use these funds equitably among the various programs and impacted areas of our city, based upon the unmet needs of affected households and rental properties. We understand that only households and rental properties that are in FEMA-designated counties will be eligible for assistance using these funds.

In our administration of these CDBG Disaster funds, we will comply with all applicable state and federal laws and regulations, as modified by the Waivers and Alternative Requirements promulgated by HUD in the Federal Register of February 13, 2009, Docket No. FR-5256-N-01.

We are requesting funding from the Act in the following amounts:

For the following activities: Repair and Rehabilitation of Single-Family and Multi-Family units, Homebuyer Assistance, and Interim Mortgage Assistance; with total assistance for all activities not to exceed $1,008,869.

NOTE: Federal regulations require that the State of Iowa utilize at least 10% of its allocation from this appropriation for assistance to rental housing. You are encouraged to use these funds, rather than funds from the first Disaster Appropriation, for your rental housing activities, in order to help the State meet this requirement.

It is our understanding that the Iowa Department of Economic Development will, using the latest available data, allocate the funds based on the amount of unmet need within our city as compared to the state as a whole. We further understand that the amounts may eventually be increased or decreased based upon utilization of the funds provided and the potential availability of additional federal funds.

Included with this letter of application is a Minority Impact Statement, which we have completed and signed as required by recent Iowa legislation.

Sincerely,
	Attest:
T.M. Franklin Cownie City of Des Moines, Iowa	Diane Rauh, City Clerk
