RE: Commission Member Vacancies

Dear Mayor and Council Members:

Commissioner Danelle Stamps has resigned from the Historic Preservation Commission. She advised staff that she would be submitting a letter of resignation at the first of the year. We have not received a letter to date. The loss of Ms. Stamps in conjunction with the existing vacant position that was last held by Jennifer Irsfeld James has made it a challenge to have a quorum at meetings over the past few months.

We respectfully request that two new members be appointed to the Commission to return it to its full membership of ten.

Please advise us if we can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,

Susan Holderness, Chair
Historic Preservation Commission
