Jason,

As you are aware, my family is leaving the country to live abroad for the next year. We will be leaving at the end of June and because of all the planning involved, I will need to have the May 20th meeting be my last. Please accept this email as my official resignation from the commission, effective after the meeting on May 20, 2009.

I have enjoyed my time on the commission and hope that I may be able to contribute again upon our return.

Thanks again for the opportunity.

Sincerely,
