Letter of Resignation from Access Advisory Board, City of Des Moines, Iowa

Dear Mary,

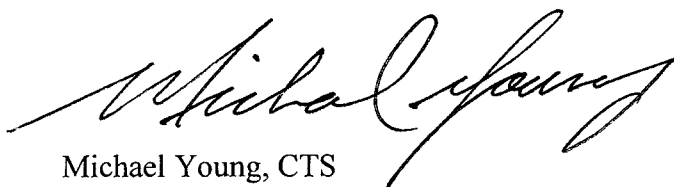

It is after much thought and consideration that I need to resign from the Access Advisory Board. It is documented that I have not attended any board meetings this year and this is due to constant conflicts with work that have prevented me from attending.

Over the past seven years or so that I have sat on the Access Advisory Board I am happy to say that I have seen the efforts of this board visible in the progress and improvements to our great city. It has been a pleasure to have participated with fellow members in the wide variety of projects over the years and improved the accessibility for our fellow citizens here in Des Moines.

I greatly appreciate the support that we have enjoyed from Parks & Recreation staff - Sharon Neff, Andrew Hennesy, and the now retired Don McLaughlin along with Ann DiDonato from City Legal. These fine individuals have made this board a joy to be part of.

Please accept my resignation to be active upon receipt of this letter at the executive committee meeting today. The level of business and my needing to travel because of work has significantly increased this year. Because of this, I am unable to meet the requirements of what is needed to be a sitting member.

Sincerely,

Michael Young, CTS
