Dear Frank,

After speaking with you at the Des Moines Neighbors Award Dinner, about reappointment to the commission, I want to thank you for your support for my reappointment, but after serious consideration, it is with deep regret that I must tender my resignation to the Civil Service Commission.

For approximately the last twenty years I have served on boards or commissions, I have taken this charge very seriously and hope I have served my city well.

The Civil Service Commission is a serious undertaking, but also very rewarding. I will miss my fellow commissioners and the great staff of the Human Resource Dept.

My resignation will be effective as of May 27, 2008. Once again thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Neva Wells
