As you have all been previously informed, I am submitting my resignation to the City of Des Moines Live Music Commission due to an impending move out of the State. My resignation is effective immediately.

Thank you for your hard work in getting this commission off the ground - and in the years ahead, people will look back and realize the importance of its formation. Although Clarence and I are leaving at the same time, it's good to know the the other commissioners already have a plan to move forward, and I'm very confident in their vision and ability to do so. Clarence and I are both making arrangement for possible replacements and will contact the necessary parties to do so.
Many are eager to serve in our place.

Thanks,

Fritz Junker
