RE: APPEAL

I am writing to appeal a ruling dated 07/30/08 in regard to vehicle impound and the related tickets.

On 06/14/08 I was doing my work driving along the 30th street a dead end street off the center st:

It was raining heavily and the ~~rea~~ streets were flooded.

I hit a pot hole and my car developed complications leading that made it stall:

In accordance to the driving instructions, I manually pushed the heavy car all the way to the side.

I further made an extra effort to get it off the kerb but I wasn't strong enough to push the right rear wheel of the road:

I left the car with the right rear touching the curb while the front one was on the grass. The car was parked almost parallel to the road:

In the heavy rains, I left my blinkers on and walked several blocks upon which I called a Tow Truck.

→ The officer ended writing me up two tickets: one for parking in a no parking zone and the other for double parking:

The two tickets are for the same violation.

~~There is no way one can double park in a no parking zone.~~

In my opinion, the officer miss perceived my efforts to get the car away from the road to mean parking.

→ Going by the officers words, "Not in proper space" (Across markings)

* There was no mark.

and not in proper space ~~is~~ simply ~~repre~~ covered by the No parking Ticket:

I did not park the car by will it stalled:

* Had it not been for the pet here ~~the~~ my car would not have stalled and I would not be dealing with the issue.

~~I am not that~~
Yours hopefully

Re: Administrative Hearing – Vehicle Impound

Dear Mr. Mathenge:

In response to your written appeal, the City of Des Moines convened an Administrative Hearing on July 28, 2008, at 8:45 a.m. regarding a motor vehicle impound (Impound Tag Number 275966). Pursuant to Section 114-485.16 of the Municipal Code, you were given an opportunity to be heard at that time.

The issue before the Hearing Officer was the removal and impoundment of an illegally parked vehicle. Section 114-485.11 of the Municipal Code states, "...[that] the police department...may remove and impound vehicles or cause vehicles to be removed and impounded when the vehicles are stopped or parked in violation of this chapter or other city ordinances and, in so doing, may employ such means as are reasonably necessary.

Officer Jon Dallman stated that at approximately 1:45 p.m. on June 8, 2008, he found a vehicle on the west side of 30th Street. The vehicle was parked in a no parking anytime zone with the right front wheel over the curbing on the grass and parked at an angle. Officer Dallman said he impounded the vehicle because of traffic concerns.

Mathenge Moses said he was delivering the Sunday newspaper on June 8, 2008, when he hit a pothole that disabled his vehicle. Moses said he was running late with his delivery route due to heavy rains. Mr. Moses said he pulled to the side of the street and called a towing company for help. Mr. Moses said he turned the blinkers on his vehicle and was only gone about 20 minutes. Mr. Moses said that during that 20 minute period, Officer Dallman must have seen his car, called to have the car impounded and had the vehicle removed before his return. I asked Mr. Moses if he left a visible note stating the problem with his vehicle and he said he did not.

I find probable cause was proven for the impound. You have the right to appeal the ruling to the City Council by filing an appeal with the City Clerk's Office within seven (7) days of receipt of the ruling. Your appeal must include

ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING TRANSCRIPT

July 28, 2008

City v. Mathenge

Vehicle Impound

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Good morning. My name is LeAnn Ducey and I am an Administrative Hearing Officer. It is 8:50 a.m. on July 28, 2008 and we are conducting an administration hearing on a vehicle impound. The appellant is Moses Mathenge. When I call you to give testimony today, please come up to the podium, speak into the microphone and state your full name and address for the record. You will then be sworn in. This is an informal hearing and to that matter the hearing is now open. Would the representative from the City please come forward, identify yourself and present any information you have pertaining to this hearing. Please state your name.

OFFICER JON DALLMAN: My name is Jon Michael Dallman.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Please raise your right hand. Do you Officer Jon Michael Dallman, swear or affirm the testimony you are about to give is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

OFFICER JON DALLMAN: I do.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Go ahead.

OFFICER JON DALLMAN: And, a...

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Just tell why you're here today.

OFFICER JON DALLMAN: I am here today for an impound that I did. It was 13:45 in the afternoon on, I don't have the date with me.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay.

OFFICER JON DALLMAN: It was a vehicle that was facing southbound on the west side of 30th Street and that side of the street had no parking signs all along it. The vehicle was parked at approximately 45° angle with the right wheel over the curb onto the park and I cited the vehicle for parking in a no parking zone and also being parked illegally and called for an impound to get the vehicle off the street as I felt it was, it was unsafe in the manner that it was parked.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. Thank you very much. Sir. Please state your name and address.

MOSES MATHENGE: My name is Moses and my address is....

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: What's your last name?

MOSES MATHENGE: "Mathenge."

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Pronounce it please.

MOSES MATHENGE: Mathenge.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay.

MOSES MATHENGE: And my address is 1304 24th Street.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Please raise your right hand. Do you Moses Mathenge, swear or affirm the testimony you are about to give is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

MOSES MATHENGE: Yes so. Yes please.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. Go ahead and tell me why you're here today.

MOSES MATHENGE: Uh, on the said date. It was very heavy. It was raining heavy. It was a Sunday morning. It was raining heavy. I was on my usual route distributing newspapers and I couldn't distribute the paper on time because of the heavy rains so I was doing it during the day. And, a, when I came across the address where the Officer impounded the car, that is actually one of the houses where I was supposed to be serving the newspaper. I reversed and hit a curb, hit a pothole which was full of water and I couldn't see it and I reversed to the house where I was supposed to distribute the newspaper. I pushed the car when it stalled and pushed it all the way off the road on the curb all by myself. Then, a, I left the car for like, uhm, 20 minutes and called for a tow truck because I needed help more than a punishment. But by the time I came back I didn't find the car. I didn't find no warning. I didn't find any notice. But the car was off the road. It was all the way parked onto the, it was clear over the park, curb on the grass.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay.

MOSES MATHENGE: The Officer give me two tickets and, uhm, the Officer say that I had parked, I had double parked in an area where it was not supposed to be parked. I don't know what the Officer meant by double parking where it was not supposed be, it was supposed to be a no parking in the first place. And then, uh, he went ahead and gave me another ticket for parking on the wrong side and, uhm, I feel I needed help more than punishment.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Did you leave any kind of a note with your vehicle that there was a problem and that you would be returning soon?

MOSES MATHENGE: Yes.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: You left a note on your vehicle?

MOSES MATHENGE: Yes. My hazard lights were on and I had to push the car all the way off the road. It was not on the road. It was on a Sunday and it's a dead end street. There are like, uhm, six houses on that street. It's a dead end. That is the very house that I had just served the newspaper when I hit a pothole on the road and my car stalled in the rains.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. What time, 1:45 in the afternoon seems awfully late to be delivering a Sunday newspaper.

MOSES MATHENGE: Yes, but it rained heavy and I could not do the paper because it was one of those weekends when you were having floods all over so I had to stop my newspaper route until that time.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: I never had my newspaper delivered late because of the rain.

MOSES MATHENGE: That time we were free to deliver newspapers late because of the rains. Even our pickup collection had to be changed from the downtown because it was flooded awful.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. Alright. Uhm, you say you had your hazard lights on, but did you, what, what time did you leave the car? You say you were only gone 20 minutes and in the 20-minute time are you saying an Officer was there. Had a tow truck come and the car was gone before you got back?

MOSES MATHENGE: Uh, I left the car for approximately 20 minutes because I had to walk and go get help. I called a tow truck myself. But by the time I got back there, there was no car.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. But you're saying you were only gone for 20 minutes?

MOSES MATHENGE: Uh, I walked for, it could have been a little longer than that because it was still, it had stopped raining but I had to walk a little, like 15 blocks to my house.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. Did you bring any proof with you today that you had contacted a tow truck to have them come?

MOSES MATHENGE: I have here, got a contact of the tow truck who came who ended up to be the person who towed the car now from the junk yard, what you call that place.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: From the impound.

MOSES MATHENGE: Yeah, from the impound where it was taken.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. This is the tow truck, uh, number that you called originally to come and help you.

MOSES MATHENGE: Yes, to come and help me from that position.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay.

MOSES MATHENGE: Now he ended up, he ended up helping me get the car from Owen Crist or somewhere it was taken.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. What's the name of the tow truck place?

MOSES MATHENGE: It's American Car Wholesale.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: And the phone number there?

MOSES MATHENGE: The phone number is 515-779-7057.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. Okay.

MOSES MATHENGE: And the address is in question I have it in my office.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. I, I can, I think there is only one office of them. Okay. Do you have anything additional to present today?

MOSES MATHENGE: As in?

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Do you have anything else you want to tell me about today?

MOSES MATHENGE: The impound cost me a lot of suffering, money and time and cause I had to come for hearing the first time. I receive, I did not receive the mail on time. The one which was giving me the hearing date and I came running downtown after calling in.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. Right. And that's, you know, this, it was continued to today so that's no problem. Okay. So, uhm, Officer Dallman, do you have anything further to present today?

JON DALLMAN: No ma'am.

HEARING OFFICER LEANN DUCEY: Okay. I'm not going to make a ruling today. I'm going to review what the information that has presented to me and probably later this week you will receive my ruling through the, uh, mail. Upon receipt that will be my final administrative decision. Should you disagree you do have the right to file an appeal with the City Council. Thank you very much everyone for coming in.

I, Renae Lampkin, certify that I transcribed the minutes of the July 28, 2008 Administrative Hearing pertaining to City v. Mathenge regarding a vehicle impound.
