Re: Navy Model Loan Program

Dear Ms. Dolan:

The City of Des Moines is self-insured for liability coverages up to $2,000,000 per occurrence, with an excess liability policy for claims that exceed that amount. The City's self-insurance program is backed by the full faith and credit of the City through its ability to levy taxes to meet its financial obligations. All City Buildings and contents, including Fine Arts coverage, are covered under the City's blanket property insurance policy with a $100,000 deductible per occurrence. The City requests that the Department of the Navy accept the City's self-insurance/excess insurance program as meeting the insurance requirements of loan program Contract No. 24-81-C-0205.

Sincerely,

Mark J. Schultz
