Indicate other experiences or skills which will contribute...: My educational and professional experience has centered on urban planning, economic development, and historic preservation. I have a bachelor's degree from Iowa State University in community and regional planning and a master's degree in public policy from Rutgers University. I understand the role of zoning and other ordinances, historic preservation, community organizing, TIF and other public financing, urban design, and other tools in community development. I like to be challenged and am results oriented. I understand government processes and am experienced in facilitating effective meetings. My professional life has taken to me to inner-city New York City to work in predominantly minority neighborhoods, and to wealthy suburban communities in Iowa. I am passionate about public service and the continued progress of Des Moines. I care deeply about the future of my neighborhood, but care equally about the entire city.
