STAFF REPORT TO THE PLANNING COMMISSION

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

When Army Post Road was rerouted to intersect with Highway 28, to accommodate the construction of a new runway, it inadvertently created two separate segments of Army Post Road. The West Des Moines City Council recently approved the renaming of that portion of original Army Post Road section lying east of Veterans Parkway to their eastern corporate boundary shared with Des Moines to SE Willow Creek Drive.

Staff believes that the northern section of Army Post Road (original Army Post Road) should be renamed to assist emergency responders and citizens in locating and wayfinding both Army Post Road and old Army Post Road.

There were several options to consider:

1. Rename the old Army Post Road as "Lally Street". This is the street name that most closely aligns across the city street grid. There would be two street names where the street crosses into West Des Moines.
2. Rename old Army Post Road to "Willow Creek Avenue". The name would then be similar as it crossed jurisdictional boundaries with West Des Moines. The West Des Moines Street containing the directional indicator "SE" and using the suffix "Drive". The designation of "Drive" is used in Des Moines Street naming convention to indicate a street at a location that is significant in relation to an indicated activity or public interest. This would not be the scenario in this instance. Use of "avenue" would follow the normal naming convention.
3. Find a new distinct name for old Army Post. Again this would cause a street name change as the road entered West Des Moines.

From an emergency responder's perspective, it is better to have street names that are the same or similar across jurisdictional boundaries. Renaming the original segment of Army Post Road would affect addressing for two private residences and two commercial buildings. The property owners would have one year to change all mail to the new street name. For that year the U.S. Postal Service would deliver mail to both Army Post Road addresses and the new street name.

Applicable Recognized Neighborhood(s): The portions of the affected property north of the subject segment of original Army Post Road are located in the Southwestern Hills Neighborhood. The neighborhood was notified of the Commission meeting by mailing of the Preliminary Agenda on September 20, 2016. A Final Agenda was mailed to the neighborhood association on September 30, 2016. Additionally, separate notifications of

All agendas and notices are mailed to the primary contact(s) designated by the recognized neighborhood association to the City of Des Moines Neighborhood Development Division. The Southwestern Hills Neighborhood Association notices were mailed to George Davis, 3124 Southwest 29th Street, Des Moines, IA 50321.

SUMMARY OF DISCUSSION
