Dear Ms. Rauh,

I'm currently a member and Co-Chair on the Neighborhood Revitalization Board and have been serving since July 2014 for Ward 1.

In June 2017, I retired from 39 years of county government to further pursue the Secular Franciscan Order and was professed into the Order June 2018. Since being professed my responsibilities have increased to becoming the Secretary in our fraternity and two weeks ago was appointed to a position as the Animator Coordinator for overseeing 30 fraternities in a six state region to advocate and work on Social Justice.

At this time, I'm going to need to resign from the Neighborhood Revitalization Board beginning in 2019 due to my new responsibilities and priorities. My last meeting will be on January 2, 2019. I truly appreciated the opportunity to be on this board and enjoyed working with other board members and learned so much about the City of Des Moines. What a great experience!

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions at 515-577-5754.

Sincerely,

Tammy Keiter, OFS
