Kelli,

I am so happy for you and your new position. It takes a lot to realize your limitations you job places on your personal life and any public service. I appreciate what you have accomplished and will always keep you in mind if your situation changes in the future.

I have copied Diane Rauh on this email to inform her of your resignation from the Sister Cities Commission.

Subject: Commission Update

Hi Bill,

I wanted to let you know that over these last 4 weeks I have been interviewing for a new position, one in particular that was on the East Coast. I have accepted a new position and, though it is located in Des Moines, it will require extensive travel taking me away from the Des Moines area often. I appreciate the opportunity to serve, however, it is likely that I cannot meet Roger and Peggy's time or meeting expectations for the commission going forward in this new position.

I want you to know that I am so appreciative of your time meeting with me and for your nomination. I'm very passionate about international relations and diplomacy and would have loved to have represented our ward in this capacity. I realize this puts a vacancy from our ward on this commission and am very apologetic for any inconveniences.

I'll still be living in the Chautauqua area and look forward to staying in touch with you. Thank you for your understanding and service to our district.

Sincerely,

Kelli Todd
