Dear Josh,

This is to submit my resignation from the Des Moines Parks & Recreation Board effective October 31, 2019. I have been honored to have been appointed to serve on the Board for these past several years and have nothing but the highest praise and regard for the Parks & Recreation staff and my Board colleagues, and especially Ben Page and George Davis whose tutelage and dedication have helped make my Board experience both meaningful and productive.

While it has been a pleasure to serve, the simple fact is that I've become over-volunteered in various capacities since I retired a couple of years ago and so need to cut back.

Note that I would be happy to continue on the Golf Committee as a citizen member if you and the Board feel I can make a contribution in that capacity.

Last, a huge thanks Josh for all you do for the City of Des Moines!

Sincerely,

Bill Nassif
