ROW OP S 1/2 NW 1/4 SEC 25-79-24

WHEREAS, this project involves rehabilitation of existing low-income family housing;

WHEREAS, by Roll Call No. 08-2162 on December 8, 2008 the City Council adopted criteria to evaluate support for LIHTC. The rehabilitation is consistent with the criteria because it will include substantial external and energy efficient improvements, updating the landscaping, replacing the roof and installing energy efficient heating and cooling systems and it has been supported by the Highland park Community Action Association; and

WHEREAS, the developer has not requested local monetary assistance and will not request tax abatement for the improvements; and

WHEREAS, the City's Affordable Housing project is not applicable because the project is rehabilitation of existing assisted units; and

WHEREAS, rehabilitation of this project will ensure housing is provided to low income families; and

WHEREAS, Dominion Development and Acquisition, LLC has provided information on its history as a provider of affordable housing in the Upper Midwest and has managed the Fenway Manor Apartments for ten years;
